

Fieldpoint Private Announces New Chairman

Greenwich, CT – January 30, 2014 – Fieldpoint Private, the fast-growing wealth advisory and private banking firm serving ultra high net worth families and institutions, today announced the appointment of Timothy J. Tully as Chairman of the firm’s Board of Directors.

Mr. Tully succeeds Daniel Donahue, who retired from the chairmanship he held since co-founding the firm in 2008. Mr. Donahue continues as a member of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Tully is Managing Partner of Tully Capital Partners and Tully Investment Fund, which are private investment partnerships. He has been a Fieldpoint Private Director since 2012, leading the Board’s Compensation Committee, as well as serving on its Asset and Liability Committee and Loan Committee.

“Tim has a great understanding of what makes Fieldpoint Private such a special institution for our clients. To me, that is the single most important reason why he is the perfect choice,” said Mr. Donahue. Robert Matthews, President and CEO of Fieldpoint Private, and one of the bank’s Directors, added, “His ideas and leadership have been evident from the day he joined our Board. He is a true partner and we are so pleased that he has agreed to take on the Chairman role.”
